The aim of these frameworks should be to reinforce bank’s operating environment, internal governance and market discipline to help address moral hazard considerations, safeguard the interest of demand depositors, and systemic risk. Global Market for Islamic Banking. Islamic banking, beginning from the Middle East, has grown into a worldwide phenomenon with Islamic financial institutions now operating in more than 80 countries worldwide. According to Ernst and Young’s World Islamic Banking Competitiveness Report, FY16, Islamic banking assets with commercial banks globally will grow to US $1.8 trillion by 2020 from US $920 billion in 2015. Islamic banks also have to tap into customer cross-selling opportunities and provide segmented offerings to sustain and be competitive in the market.
