Inaugural lecture delivered on 29 March 1988. Prof Gustav Visser Department of Geography and Environmental Studies Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences Stellenbosch University.

South Africa was a popular destination for a range of inhabitants of neighbouring. Further recent additions to tourist accommodation literature have been reflections on timeshare accommodation (Pandy & Rogerson, 2013a, 2013b). New niches in recent tourism geography scholarship abound.

B - The first lecture in the series was on the nature of human communication.

7 A - Jim’s a very interesting character. I hope you meet him.

B - The book attempts to explain the fundamental character of social life.

8 A - I saw her turn to her husband and whisper something in his ear.

B - Let us now turn to the subject of town planning.

9 A - He always underlines every new word when he’s reading.

B - The study underlines the fact that very little research exists.

10 A - The liquid became solid as the temperature was lowered.

B - The study lacks solid evidence and therefore its conclusions are doubtful.

Task 2 (p. 125) Circle the most appropriate noun to complete each sentence. Bring your club to Amazon Book Clubs, start a new book club and invite your friends to join, or find a club that’s right for you for free. Explore Amazon Book Clubs.

South Africa is a multiethnic society encompassing a wide variety of cultures, languages, and religions. Its pluralistic makeup is reflected in the constitution's recognition of 11 official languages, which is among the highest number of any country in the world.

FRANSJOHAN PRETORIUS is a professor in History at the University of Pretoria and has written or edited eight books about the Anglo-Boer War. His book Life on Commando during the Anglo-Boer War 1899-1902 was the runner-up in the Sunday Times Alan Paton Award.

Fransjohan Pretorius guides us from the distant past to the present day. Africa Past and Present is a podcast about history, culture, and politics in Africa and the diaspora. The show highlights interesting and significant people, ideas, and discussions in African Studies from a wide range of disciplines and perspectives.

We talk about her new book, Cooking Data: Culture and Politics in an African Research World, based on HIV and AIDS research in Malawi. The discussion explores the social and cultural cleaning (“cooking”) of survey data and its implications for demographers and […].
