"I live in Thousand Oaks for eight years and couldn't be any happier of the neighborhood, safe, good schools and close to many places making it best place to live, raise a family and retire." - Flag. Trulia User. 8y ago. "Live here for 20 years.....This particular home has stunning sunroom in back and manicured backyard. Neighborhood is low traffic, but still in the middle of T.O. - 15 minute walk to malls and shops...a hidden gem in TO". Once upon a time, the Conejo Valley was primarily home to the Chumash Indians, oak trees, and animals. Eventually, ranches took over, cowboys made the valley their home, and the area served as a country retreat for the adventurous people of Los Angeles. The producers of numerous movies and television shows took advantage of the natural beauty that could not be duplicated on a soundstage. Hollywood stars found privacy. Soon, word spread about the tranquility Thousand Oaks is the second-largest city in Ventura County, California, United States. It is in the northwestern part of Greater Los Angeles, approximately 40 miles (64 km) from Downtown Los Angeles, and is less than 15 miles (24 km) from the Los Angeles neighborhood of Woodland Hills. It is named after the many oak trees present in the area. The city forms the central populated core of the Conejo Valley. Thousand Oaks was incorporated in 1964, but has since expanded to the west and east. Two-thirds
