The C. L. P. of California fully recognizes the value of political action as a means of spreading communist propaganda; it insists that in proportion to the development of the economic strength of the working class, the working class must also develop its political power. The C. L. P. of California proclaims and insists that the capture of political power, locally or officially, is an essential component of the larger struggle for the advancement of the working class. The capture of political power is not just a means to an end, but rather a process that must be continuously advanced in order to achieve the ultimate goal of class struggle.
