Four Focus Areas of The United Methodist Church

The Four Areas of Focus express the vision and yearnings of the people of The United Methodist Church. Over the next quadrennium, United Methodists will seek to make disciples for Jesus Christ for the transformation of the world by working around these areas of ministry.

1. Christ-Centered Transformation
The church is called to be a Christ-centered, disciple-making, transformational community.

Read stories about ways United Methodists follow Jesus, make disciples and transform the world at www.umc.org – enter ‘four focus areas’ in search box.

Dr. Charles Kyker invites you to some upcoming inspirational and informational gatherings in Western North Carolina. The first gathering will be coming up on Sunday, March 29 from 5pm until 6:30pm at the Lambuth Inn in Lake Junaluska. Keith Boyette, President of the WCA will be there to share and answer questions. Western North Carolina Conference, Congresses, Methodist Church, Methodists, South Methodist Episcopal Church. Places. North Carolina. Edit. Journal of the Western N.C. Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. This edition was published in 1890 by The Conference in North Carolina. Edition Notes.

Title varies slightly. This Conference was formed when part of the Church's North Carolina Conference merged with part of its Holston Conference. This Conference merged with part of the North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church (U.S. : 1830-1939), and part of the Blue Ridge-Atlantic Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, to form the Western North Carolina Conference of the Methodist Church (U.S.). Other Titles. Annual Reports. Coming soon! In These Pages. The North Carolina Conference is an Annual Conference (a regional episcopal area, similar to a diocese) of the United Methodist Church. This conference serves the eastern half of the state of North Carolina, with its administrative offices and the office of the bishop located in Raleigh, North Carolina.

Summit is an annual youth conference sponsored by the Western North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church. Edit. Henderson County's Cauley presents Black History Collective project.
